The Kaplan Higher Education Institute is offering the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-Registration), awarded by Griffith University. This degree is accredited by Singapore Nursing Board and is a 24-month part-time programme. Courses include Contemporary Nursing, Clinical Health Assessment, and Pathophysiology & Pharmacology.

Applicants must hold a Diploma in Nursing either from Nanyang Polytechnic, Ngee Ann Polytechnic, Parkway College Singapore or an approved institution from other countries. Or, they must have a Certificate in Nursing from the Singapore School of Nursing or its equivalent, and be employed as a registered nurse in Singapore.

The next enrolment intake is in February 2018.

The East Asia Institute of Management offers three nursing programmes: Bachelor of Science in Professional Practice (Nursing), Master of Science in Nursing (Management) and Master of Science in Nursing Education. The part-time courses range from 16 to 24 months, and are offered in partnership with Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh.

Candidates for all three courses must be registered nurses, and/or hold a Diploma in Nursing or Health Sciences-Nursing.

The Bachelor’s course has three intakes in January, April and October. The Master’s courses have two intakes in January and July.
